

Biography: Eric Hagerson

Eric Hagerson is Senior Regulatory Affairs Manager for T-Mobile USA, a nationwide, full service, mobile communications provider.

Mr. Hagerson has over 14 years of experience in the telecommunications industry. His career background in the field is varied and includes network design and implementation, contract negotiation and vendor development. Mr. Hagerson has consulted on interconnection and intercarrier compensation issues and was T-Mobile's representative to the Intercarrier Compensation Forum. He spearheaded T-Mobile's federal AWS-1 spectrum clearing efforts which achieved early access to nearly all of the company's $4.2 billion in AWS-1 licenses; as a result of this work, he was awarded the T-Mobile Summit Award.

Currently, Mr. Hagerson's policy portfolio is diverse. He is responsible for T-Mobile's Public Safety and 9-1-1 federal advocacy efforts, including chairing the FCC's Communications, Security, Reliability and Interoperability Council's Working Group 1 Subcommittee on Text to 9-1-1 location determination. He is also active in NTIA's Commercial Spectrum Management Advisory Committee's efforts to identify further federal spectrum for reallocation or sharing opportunities, serving as chair of the Transition Implementation Priorities Subcommittee in Working Group 2. Other issues under Mr. Hagerson's purview include signal boosters, contraband devices and interoperability.

Mr. Hagerson received his Bachelor of Arts from the University of Pennsylvania where he was a member of Phi Beta Delta, the Honor Society for International Scholars. He holds a Masters of Business Administration summa cum laude from the University of Maryland-College Park and a Project Management Certificate from The George Washington University. He is a member of the Association of Public-Safety Communications Officials, National Emergency Number Association, NG9-1-1 Institute, Federal Communications Bar Association and Alliance for Telecommunications Industry Solutions - Emergency Services Interconnection Forum.